

Join Us For The 2018 RSMCA Annual Convention In St. Simons Island – July 19th-21st

Registration is Now Open for the RSMCA Annual Convention!

RSMCA's Annual Conference will again be held at the wonderful King and Prince at St. Simon's Island, GA.

This year's program is sure to impress as always! The board and education committee have worked hard to get a stellar line up of great speakers!

This year's highlights include: New Saturday night events! This year we are going all fun and games with a RSMCA Corn Hole Tournament, DJ, caricature artists and silent auction!

This conference should not be missed! The education, entertainment, comradery and family fun will be a lasting memory!

This year's event will take place from July 19- 21, 2017.
Registration is OPEN!

We are currently seeking donations for the silent auction! Due to the generosity of our members, last year's silent auction was the best on record! Let's make this year's even better than last! If you cannot attend the convention, we would be happy to arrange pick up of any items you would like to donate.

Please contact Monica at info@rsmca.org.
